

Akron Pregnancy Services

Akron Pregnancy Services is a Christian, non-profit, non-political social service agency whose mission is to “reach and support any individual facing pregnancy related decisions with resources that empower them to make informed life-valuing choices”. Their goal is to provide practical help, education and support in a safe and confidential environment.

They offer pregnancy testing, counseling, and a variety of different classes on parenting, pre-natal care, childbirth, anger management and other topics. They also provide maternity clothes and baby items at their client store.

Their help line is used for phone counseling with clients, who are often in crisis and needing to make a decision as to whether or not to keep their child.

A children's ministry is offered for children under five years old.

Opportunities to Help:

- Counseling Volunteer: Personal contact with clients to help them work through the decision making process.
- Help Line: Phone counseling with clients, often in crisis.
- Teacher/Instructor: Curriculum has been developed for classes in pre-natal care, parenting skills, practical living skills, spiritual growth, ect.
- Children's Ministry: Ministry to children under 5 years of age.
- Church Relations – A liaison for your church.
- Material Goods: Sorting donated baby items and clothing, putting layettes together.
