

BAMCO 4 Youth

This organization is aimed at helping others reach their potential by clarifying and developing their purpose in life. They do this by dedicating themselves to providing youth and their families with wholesome and fun learning experiences including: weekly classes, once a month clubs, prevention programs, performance team, camps and conferences, and parent support groups.

Principles:

They have four specific principles for accomplishing their purpose which include:

- Showing – providing an example of high character by – serving others in an honest, respectful, well-mannered environment.
- Flowing – Connecting with the people they serve by being accessible to offer encouragement and support.
- Growing – Accomplishing and maintaining financial stability by generating enough funds to run the program, employ others and offer support to the community.
- Knowing – We must know these values in and of themselves are not enough; we must live them.

Opportunities to Help:

- Financial gifts
- Donation of goods
- Donation of time and service
- Job training
- Mentoring
- Prayer Support
